

Email Precautions

Never reply to an email with personal information like your username and password

Be cautious clicking on links directly from emails. Open your browser and type the address yourself

Beware of opening any attachments from emails, regardless of the sender

Forward suspicious emails to abuse@memphis.edu

The UofM will never ask for personally identifiable information

Information Technology Services